

JACKSONIAN

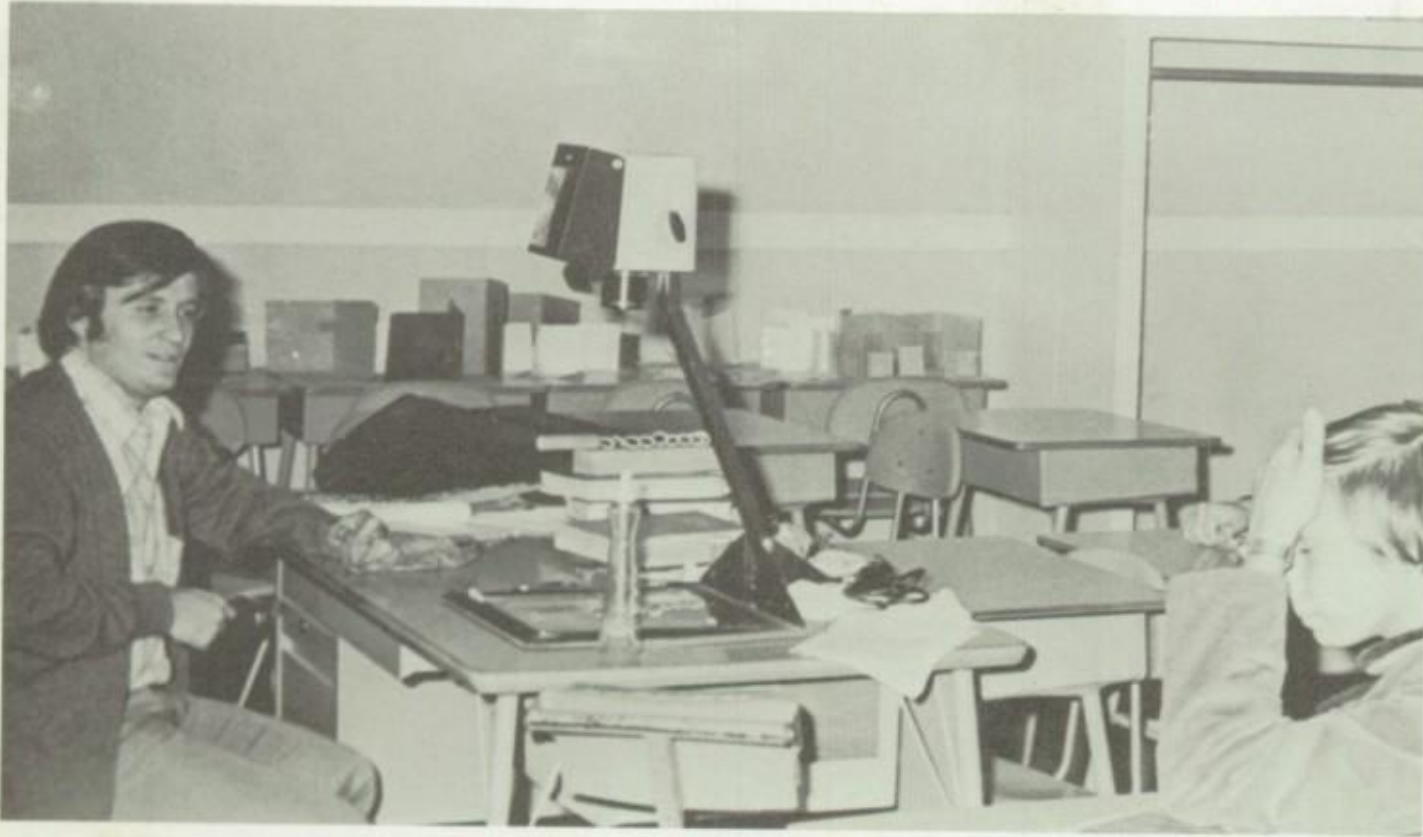

1973

#66 $16.00

To Everything There is a Season and a time to every purpose under the heavens . . .

A Time To Learn

But sometimes it's hard, right
Keith?

It couldn't be that hard to figure out Evelyn!

Is this really the Ninth Grade so hard at work?

A Time To Laugh

Joy is showing us her most famous pose.

The Seniors. Never a sad moment.

He deserves it all! Too bad its only water!

It can't be that cold!

A Time To Lose

Looking for something or trying not to step on the crack?

We can't be losing as bad as all that Kevin!

You can't win 'em all Coach!

Though it doesn't look too good, our cheerleaders don't give up!

A Time To Win

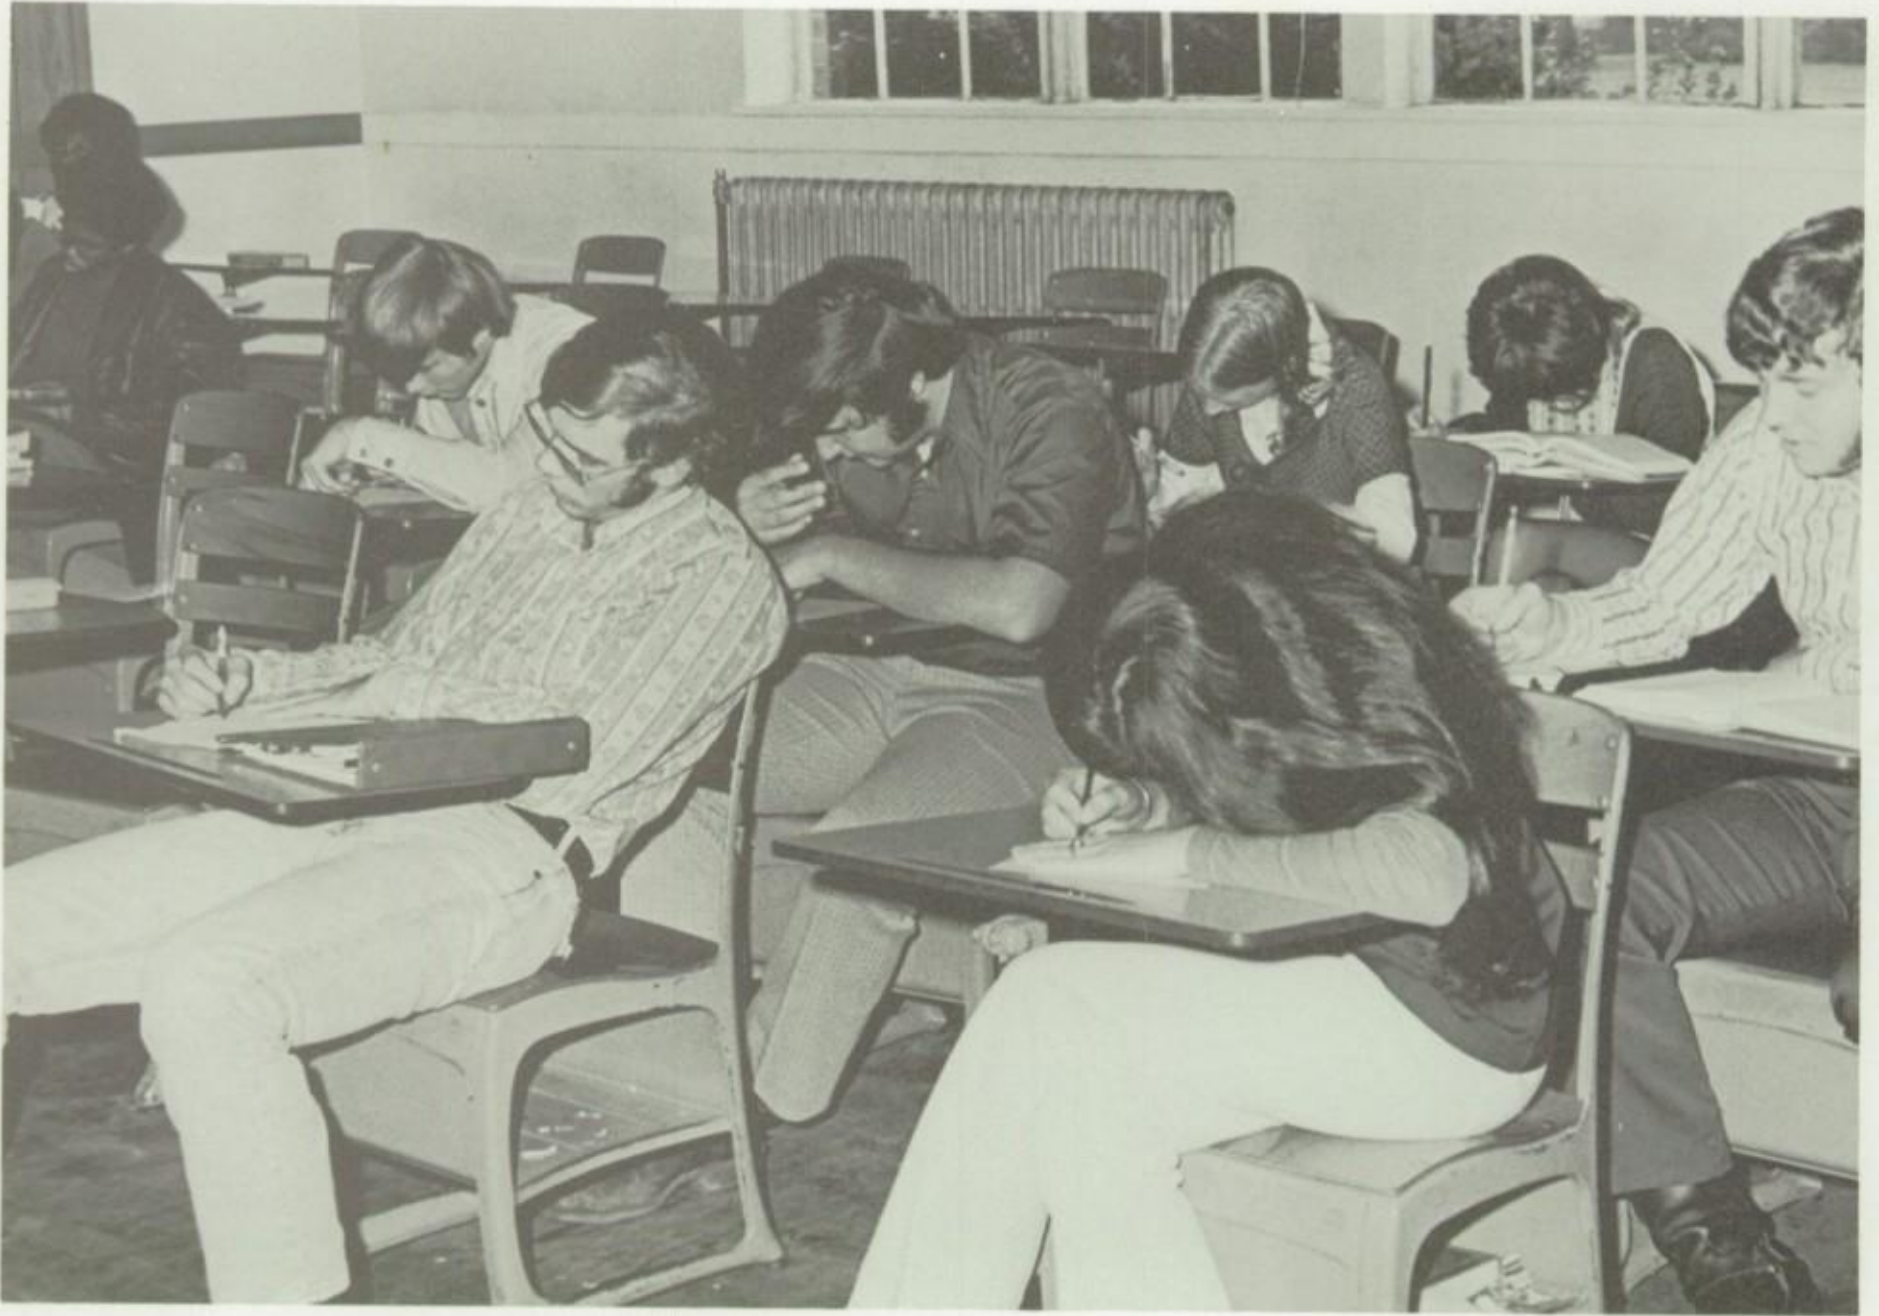

The Aggie Fans cheering for a win!

A tribute to our great Basketball Team. How does Micheal always manage to get in here?

A Time To Keep Silent

This can't be for real in Mrs. Stewart's English Class! Is this real silence?

Watch out Mrs. Smith, I'd keep quiet and listen if I were you!

Silence prevails as we recognize the kindness Mr. Jackson has given us through the years.

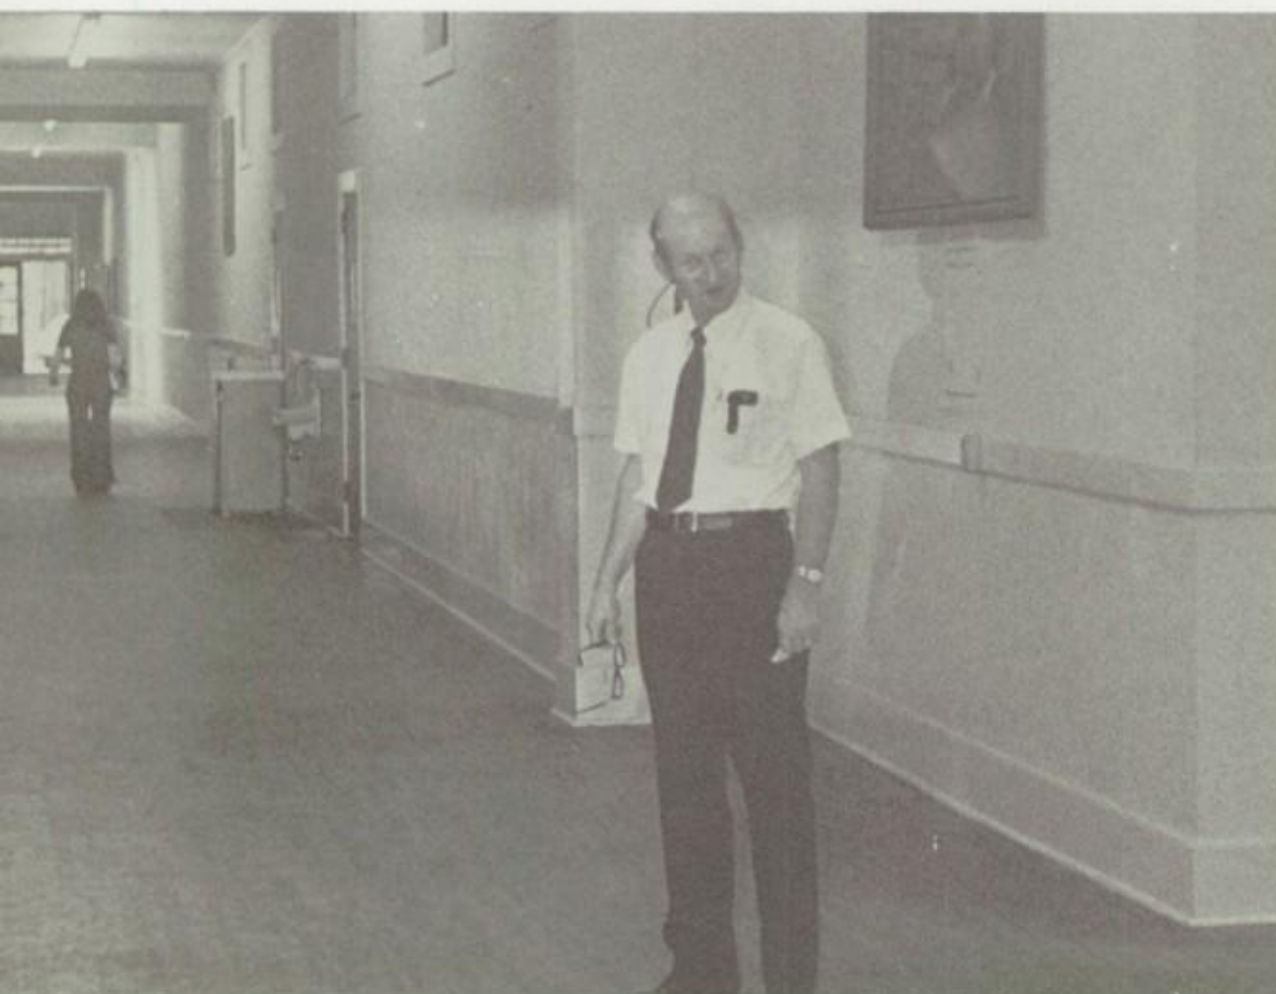

A Time To Speak

Juniors, showing their vocal cords at Homecoming.

I wonder who he's talking to?

Mr. Barbaree's favorite yelling spot.

A Time for J. H. S.

A Time For Dedication

As first graders many of us climbed those gigantic steps to board your bus. A welcoming smile greeted us always at the end of a long day as we began the trip home. Often you carried our junior band on long trips. When we entered high school you carried our basketball and football teams across the state, often as not our pep club, too. You have given much of your time and yourself to our school and us. Therefore, it is with great honor we dedicate this, the 1973 Jacksonian to you—a man who shall always fondly be remembered, Mr. Pugh.

In MEMORY

That's the Way I Remember Him

That's the way I remember him
He was tall
And he had black hair.
We listened to him
For he seemed to care.
That's the way I remember him

That's the way I remember him
He treated us nice
With his heart of gold.
He wasn't too young
Nor was he too old.
That's the way I remember him

That's the way I remember him
He was my teacher
And he drove my bus.
There was no other person
As patient with us.
That's the way I remember him

That's the way I remember him
This friend of mine
Is not with us today
Mr. Ned "Dick" Hinton
Has gone on "His Way".
That's the way I remember him.
